

European Health & Spa Award for Capella Schloss Velden

Auriga Spa crowned “Best Destination Spa”

The team of the Auriga Spa is filled with joy for having won another important Award: The exclusive indulge-sanctuary at the Capella Schloss Velden was crowned “Best Destination Spa in Europe”, by the Agency for Health and Wellness during the “European Health & Spa Awards”.

The “European Health & Spa Awards” were presented for the first time during the Spa Event 2009 conference. This award is the most prestigious of the industry. Spas, treatments and products are rigorously tested by a two tier jury process, following demanding 7 point criteria. Awards were given out in a total of 10 different categories, and the Auriga Spa at the Capella Schloss Velden was crowned “Best Destination Spa” in Europe.

“We are extremely proud of this achievement, and it proves that we are following the right philosophy”, remarks a joyous Maika Virgili, the manager of the Auriga Spa. “Without exception, all our team members are perfectly trained professionals, who offer our guests an authentic and comfortable experience, thus making their stay truly unforgettable”. Throughout the wide range of treatments available, from the exclusive Moon Phase Treatments to the various health packages, the well being of our guest is the focus of all our efforts. “Respecting the privacy of our guests, being responsive to individual needs and impeccable personal care given to our guests are the qualities which make the Auriga Spa so special,” remarks Maika Virgili.

Slew of Awards for the Auriga Spa

The “European Health & Spa Award” is further proof of the superior quality of the 3500 square meter wellness – oasis in the Capella Schloss Velden. Auriga Spa was named “Best Spa Austria’s” by Gault – Millau in 2008. In addition, it received international attention when Conde Nast Traveller included Auriga Spa, as the only spa Austria’s, in its list of top spas worldwide.
