

Auriga, the Signature Spa Experience of Capella Hotels and Resorts, Takes Personalized Approach to Wellness with a Winter Spa Program Dedicated to Sleep Health and Life Balance at Schloss Velden

VELDEN, AUSTRIA (November 16, 2007) – Auriga, the signature spa brand of Capella Hotels and Resorts, is taking a personalized approach to wellness with the introduction of an exciting winter wellness programs that eschews the one-size-fits-all approach. The week-long Sleep Health-Life Balance program will be available this winter at the Auriga spa at Schloss Velden in the idyllic lakeside resort town of Velden, Austria. The program offers guests a powerful start to their new year, providing them with highly personalized tools to help them eat healthier, sleep more soundly, and exercise more effectively.

The guest will be individually evaluated through detailed personal fitness and lifestyle assessments by professional trainers, nutritional coaches and medical experts, who will then create a customized wellbeing schedule to include two individual spa treatments per day. Also included are coaching and personal training sessions, themed lectures, yoga classes, and autogenic training – a relaxation technique developed by German psychiatrist Johannes Schultz that employs visualization and postures to alleviate stress-induced psychosomatic disorders. Dr. Ingo Wachernig and Dr. Adriana Fink lend their expert guidance to the program.

Guests who book the Sleep Health-Life Balance program will sleep on a specially prepared bed with pillows and comforters filled with Swiss stone pine strands, which, according to research at Switzerland's University of Graz, induces better sleep.

Each package also includes six nights' accommodations in a Deluxe Room with an upgrade to a Capella Room, breakfast daily at the Seespitz restaurant or through room service, refreshments in the guest's personal refreshment center, wireless Internet access, and parking. Between activities, participants enjoy access to the 30,000-square-foot Auriga spa and all of its amenities including a snow room, vitality pool, steam bath, golf simulator and fitness center. Named for the constellation whose brightest star is Capella, Auriga boasts a menu of distinctive signature treatments reflecting a new wellness philosophy based on the phases of the moon.

The package is available January 11 through March 1, 2008, with arrivals each Friday and Saturday afternoon and departures the following Thursday or Friday.
